

Where is She Now?

We are in sorrow, she is in total joy –
We see the separation, she is in the presence of the Lord -
We know weeping, she has had all tears wiped away –
We share a deep loss, she has gained a crown that will not fade away -
We are aware of her absence, she has been welcomed home!
May the glories your loved one now beholds be a source of comfort and peace for you today.

Marianne S. McCrory, aged 83, passed away peacefully on August 29, 2024, in Johns Creek, GA. Born on September 2, 1940, Marianne was a cherished member of a large, devout family, being one of eleven children to a Southern Baptist minister and a teacher. Her early life was marked by a strong emphasis on family values and religious faith.

Marianne's journey through life was rich with love and dedication. She married young and was blessed with four sons, whom she raised with deep-rooted Christian principles. After the early passing of her first husband, Frank MARR Sr., Marianne found love again and married John McCrory, with whom she shared 39 wonderful years.

Her career as a real estate agent at Findley Realty spanned a decade, during which she also committed twenty years to volunteering at the Neighborhood Cooperative Ministry in Norcross, reflecting her lifelong commitment to service.

Her personal life was filled with joy from her extensive family, including her husband, John; children, Phillip MARR (Peggie), Wade MARR (Rebecca), and stepdaughter, Staci Waddle (Jeff); daughters-in-law, Ellen MARR and Ania MARR; grandchildren, Frank MARR III (Zoe), Matthew MARR, Kevin MARR (Karissa), Ryan MARR, Casey Weeks (Brandon), Katherine Jordan (Landon), Sydney Waddle, and Jack Waddle; great-grandchildren, Hazel MARR, Aly Weeks, Madeline Jordan, and Kennedy Jordan; and her sister, Gwen Minniti.

Marianne was preceded in death by her children Frank MARR Jr., Randy MARR, April MARR, stepson, Jon Michael McCrory, and granddaughter Tomie Leeanne.

Marianne was a devout member of Perimeter Church in Johns Creek for over 30 years, where her faith and fellowship were an integral part of her life.
