The Good Shepherd

A photograph of a circular stone sheep pen in a lush green field. The pen is made of stacked grey stones and is surrounded by tall grass. In the background, there is a dirt path and a small wooden fence.

“Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.”

He who does not enter the sheepfold by the door is a thief.
He who enters by the door is the shepherd.

The shepherd enters by the door.
The gatekeeper opens the gate.

The sheep hears his voice, (he calls them by name).
He leads them out.

A stranger they will not follow, (they will flee from him).
They do not know his voice.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” 6 Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud 7 and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

So Jesus again said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. 9 I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. 10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. 11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. 12 He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.” John 10:1-12 ESV

I am the door of the sheep, everyone before were thieves.

The sheep did not listen to them.

I am the door, everyone entering by me will be saved.

The they will go in and out and find pasture.

The thief comes to kill, steal, and destroy.

I came that they might have life, and that more abundantly.

I am the Good Shepherd.

The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.

The hired hand is not a shepherd, He doesn't own the sheep.

When he sees the wolves, he leaves the sheep, and he flees.

The wolf snatches them and scatters them.

He is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.
