Psalm 90

- 1 Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations.
- 2 Before the mountains were born or You gave birth to the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.
- 3 You turn man back into dust and say, "Return, O children of men."
- 4 For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it passes by, or as a watch in the night.
- 5 You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep; in the morning they are like grass which sprouts anew.
- 6 In the morning it flourishes and sprouts anew; toward evening it fades and withers away.
- 7 For we have been consumed by Your anger and by Your wrath we have been dismayed.
- 8 You have placed our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.
- 9 For all our days have declined in Your fury; we have finished our years like a sigh.
- 10 As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, or if due to strength, eighty years, yet their pride is but labor and sorrow; for soon it is gone and we fly away.
- 11 Who understands the power of Your anger and Your fury, according to the fear that is due You?
- 12 So teach us to number our days, that we may present to You a heart of wisdom.
- 13 Do return, O Lord; how long will it be? And be sorry for Your servants.
- 14 O satisfy us in the morning with Your lovingkindness, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.
- 15 Make us glad according to the days You have afflicted us, and the years we have seen evil.
- 16 Let Your work appear to Your servants and Your majesty to their children.
- 17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; and confirm for us the work of our hands; yes, confirm the work of our hands.
