the BIG 3

the three biggest challenges to missional living

- FREQUENCY - limited exposure to non-Christians
  - FEAR - not comfortable or confident sharing our faith
  - FUEL - not enough motivation to move beyond our comfort

What's the answer?

The Gospel

The BIG 3... FREQUENCY, FEAR & FUEL

*We don't need to focus on increasing our boldness and courage, instead we need to focus on increasing our knowledge and experience of God's great love for us, such that we'll be motivated and compelled by love, to:**

- a) make time for increased frequency with non-Christians*
  - b) move towards our fears and discomfort with confidence and joy*
  - c) be motivated into action by an increased supply of the fuel of the gospel.*

At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior. - Titus 3:3-6

LOVE
WORKS

"I believe that appreciation is a holy thing – that when we look for what's best in a person we happen to be with, at the moment, we're doing what God does all the time. So, in loving and appreciating our neighbor, we're participating in something sacred." – Fred Rogers

*"Evangelism is easy. Just be nice to people. People aren't looking for a friendly church. People are looking for friends."
– Rick Warren*

Henri Nouwen

January 24, 1932 – September 21, 1996

“My own desire to be useful, to do something significant, or to be part of some impressive project is so strong that soon my time is taken up by meetings, conferences, study groups and workshops that prevent me from walking the streets. It is difficult not to have plans, not to organize people around an urgent cause and not to feel that you are working directly for social progress. But I wonder more and more if the first thing shouldn’t be to know people by name, to eat and drink with them, to listen to their stories and tell your own and to let them know with words, handshakes, and hugs that you do not simply like them but truly love them.”
