

"When Word Meets Spirit"

Part 2

How then to converge?

"When Harry Meets Sally"

How then to converge them?

“For I am afraid that when I come, I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be.

I fear that there may be discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder”

2 Corinthians 12:20

John 13:34

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

Her meetings were filled with the tangible presence of God, and healing and miracles became a regular part of her services. She was a woman of great humility and was very careful to give all the glory to Jesus. She strongly resisted being called a “Faith-Healer”, and actually would only receive being called a “Hand Maiden” of the Holy Spirit.

Perhaps the most frequently heard objection from cessationists is that acknowledging the validity of revelatory gifts such as prophecy and word of knowledge would necessarily undermine the finality and sufficiency of Holy Scripture. But this argument is based on the false assumption that these gifts provide us with infallible truths equal in authority to the biblical text itself (see Sam' article "Why NT Prophecy Does NOT Result in 'Scripture-Quality' Revelatory Words")
