1 THESS. 5:23
BODY, SOUL, SPIRIT

In Adam, we lived a self-life, an unclean life, which birthed fleas. The fleas represent all the ways we used to relate and respond to the world. They are the leftovers, the residue which still remains from who you used to be.

HEB. 4:12

As a Christian (your new identity), there's no one exactly like you. Your past history, your skills, environment, education, interests, personality, and temperament will determine what fleas you will have and how they will behave.

Here are a few of the tools I use for building hedges and fences, and setting boundaries as protection from Satan and the flesh (indwelling sins and fleas).

1. Satisfaction,
2. Music,
3. Friends,
4. Popcorn,
5. Calendar,
6. Mind,
7. Supernatural,
8. Drawers,
9. Refuge,
10. Post-its,
11. Bible,
12. Bell,
13. Numbness

“Sin is what you do when your heart is not satisfied with God.”

(John Piper— “Future Grace”)

“No one sins out of duty. We sin because it holds out some promise of happiness. That promise enslaves us until we believe that God is more to be desired than life itself” (Ps. 63:3). John Piper

This promise that sin gives us happiness can only be broken by a better promise that God’s promise of satisfaction with Him is better.

I'm satisfied with You alone,
my Heavenly Father.

"... you hold my right hand. You guide me
with your counsel..."

Psalm 73:23-24

“This is adventurous, Lord! I can rest, relax, rejoice, and pray.”

• “What are you doing, Lord?”

• “Child of mine, just eat your popcorn! I’ve got the whole world in My Hands. Trust me.”
