

10 Questions Which Explain Baptism

1. Has God made a covenant with His people?
2. Is that covenant an everlasting covenant?
3. Is it accurate to say that God's covenant is actually a promise?
4. Is it true that God's promise is that He will be a God to His people?
5. In the Old Testament was the covenant promise extended to the children of God's people?
6. In the Old Testament was circumcision the sign that a person was a recipient of God's promise?
7. In the Old Testament did the children of God's people receive circumcision as a sign of God's covenant promise?
8. Is it true that in the New Testament baptism replaces circumcision as the sign of being a recipient of God's covenant promise?
9. According to Peter in Acts 2:39, after Pentecost, was not the covenant promise made to both believers and their children?
10. Therefore, if baptism is a sign given to recipients of God's promise and if children of believers are recipients of God's promise, should children of believers be baptized?