How to Study the Bible Using Analysis

Principles for analysis:

- Context rules
- Seek the Full counsel of God's Word
- Scripture won't contradict scripture
- Don't base doctrine on an obscure passage
- Read scripture and take it at face value
- Look for the author's intended meaning
- Check conclusions with humility

Weekly Homework Guide

- Pray before you begin
 - Psalm 119:18 Open my eyes, that I might see wonderful things in Your word.
- Survey
 - Read the whole section of scripture being studied that week
 - $\circ~$ Read the verse or verses for that day
- Observe
 - $\circ~$ See what the verse is actually saying
 - Paraphrase or summarize it
 - o Answer Who? What? When? When? Where? How?
- Analyze
 - What does the verse mean?
 - $\circ~$ Check one or two cross references for key verse or word
- Respond
 - Since this is God's word what do I hear Him saying to me? What am I going to do about it?

Journal your answers for each of the bullet points then just sit and ponder everything in your heart.

1.Share an "aha" insight that struck you this week from these verses.

2.What does it mean to you to have the same mind (verses 2 and5) as Jesus and other Christians?

3.How does our unwillingness to submit to God cause conflict in our domains of life?
